WILLIAM CLAY FORD
President

He is starting his 9th season as club owner, his 12th as club president, his 17th as a club official . . . and his 39th as an avid Lion fan.

When the local NFL franchise was moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio, in 1934, he became an interested spectator. Despite his active participation in the automotive company which carries the family name, plus his many other duties in national and local organizations, he is daily at his desk in the Lions' offices to direct the over-all operation of the football club.

Under his supervision the club has been re-built to a stage where it is recognized as one of the strongest in the 26-team NFL. But the goal is a championship and he will never be satisfied with anything less.

He became a board member of the Lions' organization in 1956, was named president in 1961 and then bought out the group of stockholders who had purchased the club in 1948 from Fred Mandel of Chicago. As its sole owner, Mr. Ford takes the company back to its local origin in 1934 when it was owned by the late George A. Richards.

In addition to his daily duties as owner and president of the club, he also carries the responsibilities as vice president of the Ford Motor Co. in charge of product planning and design. He is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the motor company and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel B. Ford.

As a community leader, Mr. Ford is chairman of the trustees of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, a trustee of the Thomas A. Edison Foundation, secretary-treasurer of the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, a trustee of the Michigan Heart Association and the Eisenhower Medical Center.

He has served as national campaign chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy Association on four occasions and is a director of the United Foundation. He is also a director of the National Tennis Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Yale University in 1949, Ford has held positions in sales and advertising and in industrial relations. He was general manager of the Continental Division before assuming his present duties with the company in 1956. He has been a member of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors since 1948.

An avid sports enthusiast, he played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale in addition to being a low handicap golfer. He is a member of the Country Club of Detroit.

Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They have three daughters—Martha, Sheila, Elizabeth, and one son, William Clay, Jr. The Fords reside in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan.

RUSSELL THOMAS
Executive Vice President and General Manager

The many-faceted job of handling the day-by-day operations of the Lions' professional football franchise is in the hands of a man who has played and coached the game in addition to serving the club in numerous administrative capacities.

Thomas first came to Detroit 26 years ago as an All-American lineman from Ohio State's national championship collegiate team coached by Paul Brown. He was named director of player personnel when William Clay Ford purchased the Lions in 1964 and elevated to his current position two years later.

Under his direction, the team has been completely-rebuilt and recognized as one of the strongest in the NFL.

An All-State athlete of West Virginia, Thomas was drafted by the Lions after a brilliant football career at Ohio State. When knee surgery ended his professional playing days, he became an assistant coach at St. Bonaventure College before joining the Lions' staff in a coaching capacity.

He later was a talent scout for the local team, became a member of the Lions' radio-broadcasting team, was in charge of evaluating collegiate stars as future pros and then put in charge of the team's player personnel program.

Every player on the current Lion roster with the exception of Wayne Walker and Dick LeBeau has been acquired by draft or trade under his supervision.

A longtime Detroit-area resident, Thomas and his wife, Dorothy, reside in Walled Lake, Mich. They have two sons, John and James.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON
Senior Vice President

A veteran administrator of the National Football League, Anderson is starting his 24th consecutive year as an executive of the Detroit Lions.

He was a prime factor in organizing a group of local enthusiasts who purchased the local franchise from Chicagoan Fred Mandel in 1948. He was elected club president the following year and held that post for 12 seasons in addition to serving as general manager in nine of those years.

His current duties primarily are concerned with the club's financial and policy-making committees with special emphasis on construction of a new stadium. He also is active in local civic and community organizations.

A graduate of Beloit College, Anderson was one of that school's finest athletes. He was prominent in advertising and sales fields and was president of a local brewery from 1941 until 1958.

1972 LIONS COACHING STAFF

JOE SCHMIDT
Head Coach

The emphasis was on defense when Joe Schmidt plied his trade for 13 brilliant seasons as one of professional football's greatest middle linebackers.

The emphasis is on defense now as Joe moves into his sixth year as head coach of the Detroit Lions.

Detroit's top three choices in the 1972 draft were defensive players. So were seven of the first eight selections. When the draft ended, the Lions had tagged 14 collegiate seniors. Ten of the 14 played defense.

They also swapped a draft choice for a three-year NFL veteran who . . . needless to say . . . also is a defensive player.

Back from their rookie season in 1971 come the Lions' 1-2-3-4 draft selections of a year ago, plus a No. 8. All five of them saw NFL action. All five of them . . . naturally . . . play on the defensive side of the scrimmage line.

"I believe you might get the impression that when it comes to new players we have become defensive-minded the last two years," says Schmidt in a classic under-statement.

"But when you analyze the facts, the reasons are obvious. We concentrated on rejuvenating our offense a few years ago through the draft and trades. Last season only two of the other 25 NFL teams scored more points than we did (Dallas and Oakland).

"We gained more yardage than any team in Detroit football history (4577). Only two Lion teams (1934 and '36) gained more yards rushing than we did in 1971. Our offense is a young one. Our defense has some players who are getting up there in years. So in the last two drafts we have concentrated on bringing in young defensive players.

"We feel our moves definitely should start paying off in 1972 . . ."

Joe joined the Lions as a seventh draft choice from the University of Pittsburgh back in 1953. When he hung up his playing uniform, every honor in professional football had come his way. Now he is shooting for still another one . . . to be head coach of a champion.

Joe was named to the Pro Bowl squad 10 times in his 13 seasons despite two shoulder operations. He captained the Lions nine straight years, was voted to the NFL All-Pro team on eight occasions and saw his teammates name him their Most Valuable Player in 1955-57-58 and again in 1961.

He came out of college as a fullback but was groomed for the job of middle linebacker, a position unheard of prior to the 1950's. Up to that time, pro teams utilized a seven-man line on defense—usually anchored by a big man like Les Bingaman in the center.

The new trend called for the use of a four-man defensive line by dropping off the ends and pulling back the middle guard. Schmidt played a corner linebacker post for several years until the Lions adopted the four-man line principle.

When they did, Joe was moved into the middle linebacker slot. He stayed there until he retired as a player and is rated by all experts as the greatest of his era.

Joe resides in the suburban Detroit area with his wife, Marilyn, and his five children, Billy, Mark, Joe Jr., Kerry and Amy.

CHUCK WALTON

Guard—Iowa State—6th Year
Ht. 6-3, Wt. 250 (Drafted 3rd, '63)
Born—Canon City, Colorado, July 7, 1941

PRO: Looks for greatest season after corrective surgery for pinched shoulder-muscles after 1971 campaign . . . Had another excellent performance last year despite hampering injury . . . Strong blocker with good speed who excels at leading way for ball-carrier . . . Integral part of what is being called "one of Lions' greatest offensive lines" . . . Was a high Lion draft choice in 1963 but decided on Canadian play despite Detroit and San Diego offers . . . Returned to Detroit in 1967 and has been a starter in every game the past five years.

PERSONAL: Was a standout performer in the Canadian League at Montreal (1963-64) and Hamilton (1965-66) . . . Voted All-League and All-Pro honors in three of his CFL seasons . . . Earned All-Big Eight honors as a senior at Iowa State after three years of outstanding collegiate play . . . Prepped at Canon City . . . Married . . . Detroit-area resident.

LARRY WALTON

Wide Receiver—Arizona State—4th Year
Ht. 6-0, Wt. 180 (Drafted 3rd, '69)
Born—Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Feb. 8, 1947

PRO: Logged more time last season (405½ minutes) than any player except Yarbrough (409) . . . Grabbed 30 passes for 491 yards and five touchdowns as an almost exact sequel to soph season in '70 when he caught 30 for 532 yds. and five TDs . . . Caught at least one in every game except mud-bath at Milwaukee . . . Biggest day was vs. Packers (Oct. 10) with five catches for 103 yards and two scores, one a "classic" of 60 yards when he broke five tackles to go all the way . . . In a 1970 game racked up 158 yards (vs. Cleveland) . . . Since becoming a starter had been shutout in just four of 27 games . . . Excellent speed with good moves . . . Coaches feel he is headed for biggest season in '72.

PERSONAL: Was a running back at Arizona State with a 4.5 average on 161 carries . . . Also used as a return specialist . . . Ran a 9.4 100-yard dash in collegiate conference track meet . . . Starred at Trinidad Junior College and won J.C. All-America honors before going to Arizona State . . . Outstanding prep career at Johnston, Pa.

1971 LIONS SEASON REVIEW

(Scorer's Name in Capitals)

Sept. 20—DETROIT 13, MINNESOTA 16, at Detroit (54,418)

The Lions moved 58 yards after the opening kickoff before stalling at the Viking 12 with MANN kicking a 20-yard field goal. A Minnesota fumble on the next kickoff was recovered by Cotton on the Viking 21. Taylor and Farr picked up a first down before Farr hit to the seven. A penalty put the ball at the three and Landry flipped a scoring pass to FARR for a quick 10-0 edge.

Another recovered Viking fumble gave the Lions another chance but Mann's 39-yard try hit the crossbar and bounced back. With the Lion defense completely stopping Minnesota, Detroit had another chance early in the second period but Mann's 53-yard try was short. After Vaughn picked off a Cuozzo pass, three passes failed and MANN's 36-yard boot was good for a 13-0 bulge. Minnesota put on its first sustained drive by going 60 yards to the Detroit 6. The Lions held and COX booted a 13-yard field goal to make it 13-3 at halftime.

Minnesota came out strong to go 80 yards with the kickoff as Cuozzo hit GRIM twice on big passes, the second one for a touchdown which pulled them to a 13-10 deficit.

Mann tried two more field goals (53 and 36 yds.) and both failed in the third period. The Vikings knotted the score on a 42-yarder by COX early in the final quarter and then Kassulke recovered the fumbled kickoff at the Detroit 20. The Lion defense held but COX then booted a 9-yard field goal at 9:42 and Minnesota led for the first time.

Detroit made a last-ditch bid when Landry hit McCullouch to reach the Minnesota 25 yard line with 7 seconds to go. But, Mann's try for a 33-yard field goal was wide.

(Landry hit on 7 of 25 for 56 yards, 1 TD; Owens ran for 45 on 12 tries, Taylor made 51 on 13; Farr caught 3 passes for 12, Walton had two for 22.)

Sept. 26—DETROIT 34, NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 7, at Foxboro (61,057)

The Lions scored midway in the opening period when MANN kicked a 23-yard field goal to cap a 64-yard march and then saw TAYLOR zip in from the 3 for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter as the Lions went 71 yards in 7 plays.

On the Patriots' third play after the kickoff, LUCCI intercepted a Plunkett pass and went 25 yards for another touchdown and it was Detroit 17-0 at the intermission.

Triplett went 38 yards with the second half kickoff and the Lions picked up 3 more points on MANN's second field goal, a 27-yarder. The Patriots then got on the board when Plunkett hit VATAHA on two passes, the second going for 61 yards and a TD.

The Lions scored to open the final period when Landry pitched a short screen pass to OWENS who took it at the Lions' 26 and went down the sideline for a 74-yard touchdown. When Garrett fumbled for New England on the second play after the next kickoff, Vaughn recovered for Detroit. OWENS hit for 23, got 3 more and then bumped in for the score from the 2.

(Landry hit on 11 of 18 for 198 yards; Owens gained 80 rushing on 17 carries, Taylor made 52 on 11; Sanders grabbed 4 passes for 51, Owens caught 3 for 83 and McCullouch gained 60 on 3.)

Oct. 3—DETROIT 41, ATLANTA 38, at Detroit (54,418)

WEGER grabbed a Falcon fumble on the first series and raced 52 yards for a fast Lion touchdown. On the next series, Walker recovered another fumble and the Lions covered 25 yards in five plays with OWENS diving two yards for the score and a quick 14-0 lead. The Falcons moved 80 yards in 7 plays to get on the board with Berry pitching 13 yards to MITCHELL to make it 14-7.

A 36-yard field goal by BELL made it 14-10 before JESSIE took the next kickoff and raced 97 yards down the sideline and now it was 21-10. Atlanta came right back with Berry hitting BURROW on a 56-yard touchdown pass to narrow Detroit's lead.

A Taylor fumble was lost and MALONE bumped in three plays later to put Atlanta ahead, 24-21. But with only 1:23 left in the half, Landry fired a 56-yard scoring pass to LARRY WALTON to give the Lions a 28-24 lead at the intermission.

Detroit moved 80 yards with the second half kickoff and climaxed it when Landry looped a 16-yard pass to SANDERS. LeBeau intercepted a Falcon pass on the next series and MANN booted an 18-yard field goal to give the Lions a 38-24 bulge in a wide-open game.

Two long passes by Berry, with the second a 25-yard touchdown strike to BURROW, made it 38-31. A 13-yard field goal by MANN opened the final period. LeBeau picked off his second pass of the game, but when Weaver's punt was blocked, the Falcons scored when HAYES picked up the ball and ran 20 yards into the endzone.

(Landry hit on 7 of 12 passes for 123 yds., two TDs; Owens gained 98 on 22 carries; Walton, McCullouch and Owens each caught 2 passes.)

Oct. 10—DETROIT 31, GREEN BAY 28, at Detroit (54,418)

Barney returned the game's first punt 38 yards and the Lions struck quickly as Landry hit McCULLOUCH in the endzone for 17 and a TD. Weger intercepted Hunter's pass on the next series, before Landry passed to OWENS for another TD.

The Lions made it 17-0 early in the second period on MANN'S 12-yard field goal before the Packers broke through. After Hunter clicked on two passes, ANDERSON flipped a left-handed TD pass of four yards to BROCKINGTON.

Detroit came back with Taylor going 39 yards on three plays before Landry passed to WALTON in the endzone for an 11-yard TD to make the score 24-7 at the intermission.

After the second half kickoff, Anderson ran for 29 and three plays later bumped in from the one-yard line on a disputed touchdown. Lucci was ejected for arguing too strenuously.

The Lions bounced back as Landry hit Jessie for 23 before arching a 60-yard touchdown pass to WALTON who made a brilliant run by breaking five tackles. Then the Packers scored again with BRATKOWSKI sneaking in from the one after hitting Anderson and McGeorge for good gainers.

Detroit monopolized the ball for nine minutes in the fourth period before Green Bay recovered a fumble. Bratkowski hit Anderson and then McGeorge to reach the Lion five before going to McGEORGE in the endzone for the final score.

(Landry completed 18 of 29 for 302 yards and 4 TDs; Owens made 87 yards on 17 carries, Taylor made 55 on 16 while Landry gained 36 on 7 carries; Walton caught 5 for 103 yards and 2 TDs)

Oct. 17—DETROIT 31, HOUSTON 7, at Houston (45,885)

Neither team could move the ball in the opening period although the Lions got a break when Bell blocked Pastorini's punt and Thompson recovered for Detroit at the Houston four. A holding penalty moved the ball back to the 20 and Mann missed a 27-yard field goal attempt.

Early in the second quarter, BARNEY intercepted a Pastorini pass at the 28 and ran it in for a touchdown. Next time the Lions had the ball they scored again by going 85 yards on seven plays with OWENS bumping over from the one.

With only 1:32 left before the intermission, the Oilers went to the air. Pastorini hit JOINER for a 58-yard touchdown and it was 14-7 Detroit at halftime.

The Lions got back three on MANN'S 13-yard field goal midway in the third period and then sewed it up with two fourth quarter touchdowns. Lucci intercepted a pass at his 15 and after rushes had moved the ball to the Houston 35, Landry flipped a screen pass to TAYLOR who zipped 35 yards to the endzone.

Rasmussen intercepted another pass late in the game and Detroit banged away to score again just before the final gun with OWENS going in from the one.

(Landry was 9 for 16 and 197 yards, 1 TD; Owens gained 93 on 22 carries and 2 TDS; Taylor gained 63 on 16 carries while Landry ran for 74 on 5 tries; Taylor gained 122 yds on 4 receptions with 1 TD.)

Oct. 24—DETROIT 23, CHICAGO 28, at Detroit (54,418)

After Owens rumbled for 33 yards on four carries, MANN kicked a 28-yard field goal at 7:54 of the opening period but the Bears came back strong to go 59 yards in only five plays as Douglass hit Farmer for 14 and nine yards before SHY broke away for a 21-yard TD sprint.

MANN added a 49-yard three-pointer to make it 7-6 at the end of the period but Chicago scored again as Douglass hit FARMER on a 54-yard bomb to put Chicago ahead 14-6.

JESSIE took the kickoff two yards deep and behind great blocks by Cotton, Weaver and Kowalkowski raced 102 yards up the sideline for a TD and it was 14-13. The Lions went ahead for the first time the next time they got the ball by surging 69 yards in nine plays with the payoff being a 16-yard strike to WALTON to make it 20-14 Lions.

But Chicago bounced back to regain the lead on the next series with Douglass hitting WALLACE in the endzone for 15 and a TD.

MANN'S 29-yard field goal opened the second half to put the Lions ahead 23-21. Landry's pass was intercepted at the Lion 31 late in the third period and the Bears scored the winning points on a one-yard keeper by DOUGLASS early in the final quarter.

The Lions came back strong as Landry hit Chuck Hughes for 32 to reach the Bears' 32. Three other passes failed. On the third, one, Hughes collapsed and was rushed to the hospital after emergency treatment failed to revive him.

The saddened Lions waited disconsolately in the locker room for more than an hour hoping against hope that the medical bulletin would be encouraging. It finally came. It contained the tragic news that Chuck Hughes had died.

Nov. 1—DETROIT 14, GREEN BAY 14, at Milwaukee (47,961)

The game was played in a steady downpour with heavy mud and treacherous footing as the Packers took the opening kickoff and saw Hunter fumble on the third play. BELL picked up the loose ball and ran 25 yards for a quick Detroit touchdown.

After Hampton returned the kickoff 30 yards, the Pack broke Brockington loose for 41 yards before HAMPTON dived in for a TD from the two-yard line. Mann's field goal attempt was wide from the 39 late in the period and Lions again were frustrated when a fumble at the Packer 21 stopped a strong drive.

With two minutes to go in the half, Owens fumbled at the Lion three. HUNTER dipped in from the one to give the Pack a 14-7 edge.

With only 51 seconds on the clock, Landry took Detroit all the way on six plays with SANDERS going the final 49 yards for the typing TD.

Detroit drove deep again to open the second half when Clark returned the kickoff 55 yards. Taylor broke loose at the Packer 28 but he fumbled and the Lions lost the ball.

The Lions slogged to the Packer 24 to open the final quarter but Mann's field goal attempt was blocked at the 32. A 44-yard field goal attempt by Michaels was no good later in the period and the game ended when Nitschke intercepted Landry's pass.

(Landry hit on 6 of 14 passes for 101 yards, Green Bay had 1 completion for 0 yardage; Owens gained 74 yards on 22 carries, Landry ran for 41 on 14; Sanders caught 2 passes for 62, McCullouch had 2 for 26.)

Nov. 7—DETROIT 24, DENVER 20, at Denver (51,200)

The Lions drove to the Bronco two early in the game after big gainers by Owens and Taylor. But Taylor's fumble was lost to thwart the drive. Late in the period, Denver sped 80 yards to take a 7-0 lead with ANDERSON going the final 12 on a pass from Horn.

An interception gave Denver another chance in the second period and the Broncos went ahead, 10-0, on TURNER'S 21-yard field goal.

Detroit came back strong after the intermssion. From the Bronco 36, TAYLOR broke over the right side for the scoring sprint that made it 10-7.

The Lions scored again the next time they had the ball. On third down at his own 24, Landry arched a long pass to McCULLOUCH who took it over his shoulder and went all the way for a 76-yarder catch-and-run TD. TURNER booted a 40-yard field goal to cut the gap 14-13 but MANN came right back with a 10-yarder to put the Lions ahead at the start of the final period.

Denver put on a long drive to score again as ANDERSON went the final five yards to regain the lead at 20-17. Mann missed a 45-yard try before the Lions took over again. Landry hit SANDERS in the endzone for a five-yard TD.

Naumoff recovered a Horn fumble at the Lions' 23 and Detroit ran out the clock.

(Landry hit on 7 of 16 passes for 210 yards (202 in the second half); Owens made 109 yards on 16 carries, Taylor made 71 on 12 tries while Landry ran 48 yards on 8; Sanders caught 3 for 41, McCullouch's only catch was his 76-yard TD.)

Nov. 14—DETROIT 13, LOS ANGELES 21, at Detroit (54,418)

The Lions scored first on MANN'S 37-yard field goal late in the opening period and after Ray's field goal attempt was short on a 48-yard try, the Lions saw Taylor's fumble recovered at their 18 by the Rams. On the third play, JOSEPHSON plunged in from the one.

Los Angeles scored again before the half on an 82-yard surge with Gabriel clicking on three passes before hitting RENTZEL in the endzone for a 14-yard touchdown and 14-3 lead.

LeBeau intercepted a Gabriel pass early in the third period but Detroit had to settle for another MANN field goal from the 13. Neither team could muster a scoring drive until midway in the final quarter after Mann's 37-yard field goal attempt was wide. The Rams went 80 yards in 8 plays (three passes) with RENTZEL taking the third one for a 32-yard score.

The Lions came back strongly after the kickoff with Walton taking an 11-yard pass and McCullouch hauling in a 49-yarder to reach the Rams' four. LANDRY finally slipped in from the one to end the scoring.

(Landry hit 15 of 25 for 199 yards; Taylor ran for 101 yards on 19 carries; Owens had 57 on 16; Sanders, Walton and Owens each caught 4 passes for 52, 49 and 35 yards, respectively.)

Nov. 21—DETROIT 28, CHICAGO 3, at Chicago (55,049)

The Lions, playing on artificial turf in Soldier Field for the first time, got on the board quickly as Landry ran 52 yards on an option-keeper to the Bears' 25 and then went 14 more to the two before OWENS slanted in for the score. Landry became sick and was replaced by Munson at quarterback on the next series after PERCIVAL booted a 41-yard field goal for the Bears.

Chicago tried another field goal, missed it, but then recovered a Clark fumble at the Lion 13. Detroit held and another Percival field goal try was wide from the 17. The Lions promptly moved 80 yards on five plays on a long interference penalty (43 yds.) plus a 24-yard pass to Walton to reach the Bear 19. TAYLOR went around end for the touchdown.

Two series later, LUCCI intercepted a Douglass pass and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown that made it 21-3 at halftime.

Lucci intercepted another pass midway in the third quarter and the Lions made it 28-3 when OWENS bumped in from the one to cap a 51-yard march. Neither team scored in the final period with Percival missing a 37-yarder and Mann a 39-yard attempt. Lucci picked off his third interception of the game late in the period.

(Munson completed 9 of 15 for 75 yards; Owens ran 67 yards on 18 carries while Landry gained 66 on 2 runs; Owens grabbed 3 short passes, Taylor had 2.)

Nov. 25—DETROIT 32, KANSAS CITY 21, at Detroit (54,418) (Annual Thanksgiving Day Game)

The Lions stopped a Chief drive after the opening kickoff when Hand blocked a field goal try from the 16. Detroit took over at its 11 but the ball then changed hands twice on interceptions.

MANN kicked a 27-yard field goal to give the Lions first blood. Evey hit Dawson after the kickoff and Hand recovered at the Chief 38. Sanders grabbed a long pass and OWENS bucked in from the one to give Detroit a 10-0 lead. The Chiefs drove back to go 70 yards in 10 plays with the big one a pass from Podolak to Hayes for 23. PODOLAK scored the TD from two yards out.

Detroit retaliated with a 74-yard drive in five plays. Sanders grabbed a 21-yarder after ball bounced off a defender, then Sanders' foot. Farr came in to grab a 39-yarder to reach the five and Landry then hit SANDERS for the score and it was 17-7 at the intermission.

The Lions boosted their lead by going 63 yards in eight plays after the kickoff with McCULLOUCH capping it with a 17-yard touchdown catch. Detroit then blocked a Wilson punt at the KC 26 when JESSIE broke through. But the ball rolled out of the endzone for a safety and a 26-7 lead. MANN booted a 28-yard field goal after the free kick. The Chiefs scored again when PODOLAK scored from five yards out to make it 29-14.

A long drive provided Detroit three more points in the final period when MANN booted a 21-yarder before the Chiefs sent PODOLAK in from six yards out for his third TD.

(Landry completed 15 of 22 for 225 yards and 2 TDs; Owens gained 79 on 22 carries, Landry ran 6 times for 45; Sanders caught 5 passes for 90.)

Dec. 5—DETROIT 20, PHILADELPHIA 23, at Detroit (54,418)

The Eagles took the opening kickoff and slashed 72 yards in 14 plays with BOUGGESS diving the final yard for a 7-0 lead midway in the first period. Detroit couldn't move and the Eagles marched again to take a 10-0 margin on DEMPSEY'S 22-yard field goal.

Detroit moved to the Eagle 32 on the next series and Mann's 40-yard field goal try was short. The Eagles drove from their own 25 to the Lion 18 before DEMPSEY booted a 25-yarder.

The Lions were thwarted again on the next series after driving to the Eagle 9 when Bradley picked off a pass in the endzone and ran it 51 yards to midfield. DEMPSEY drilled a 52-yard field goal for a 16-0 halftime lead.

The Lions came back strong after the second-half kickoff to score when LANDRY went in from the two. MANN kicked a 31-yard field goal and now it was 16-10. MANN added a 32-yarder early in the final period and when Bell recovered a fumble, Detroit rolled again.

Nine plays took the ball to the Eagles' 7. LANDRY couldn't find a receiver so he ran the final yards for a TD and was ko'd on the play. Detroit led 20-16 with 1:53 left.

The Eagles took the kickoff on their 21. Liske hit Bouggess for 3, Hawkins for 31, a penalty advanced the ball another 15 to the Lions' 30. Licke then hit Hawkins again for 25 yards before passing to KRAMER for the final five yards to cap a 79-yard race with the clock that beat the Lions, 23-20.

Dec. 11—DETROIT 10, MINNESOTA 29, at Bloomington (49,784)

Landry's first pass was intercepted by WINSTON who ran it in for a 29-yard touchdown at 2:05 of the opening period. The Lions were able to retrieve three points midway in the quarter when MANN kicked a 35-yard field goal.

After several punt exchanges, the Vikes scored again when Barney fumbled Lee's punt and Ward recovered for Minnesota on the Detroit 10. After a holding penalty gave them a first down at the 5, JONES went over from the three. The Lions missed a field goal (53 yards) just before the halftime gun.

Sharockman intercepted a Landry pass on Detroit's first drive in the third period. The Lion defense held but COX booted a 10-yarder to make it 17-3.

A fumble was recovered by Bryant at the Lion 43 before Barney intercepted Cuozzo's pass and returned it to the Minnesota 28. Munson, now at QB, hit WALTON in the corner of the endzone for a TD to make it 17-10 late in the period.

Weaver's punt from the endzone was blocked by PAGE and rolled out of the endzone for a safety. COX booted a 32-yard field goal following the free kick. Another intercepted pass gave Minnesota the ball again. Cox tried a field goal. It was blocked. But the loose ball bounced off a Lion's leg and LINDSEY fell on it in the endzone for a wacky touchdown to make it 29-10.

(Landry hit on 6 of 16 for 42 yards before being replaced by Munson who was 9 of 16 for 107; Owens ran for 65 on 17 carries, Taylor was 34 on 11 tries; Cotton (for Sanders, injured) caught 5 for 79.)

Dec. 19—DETROIT 27, at SAN FRANCISCO 31, (45,580)

Barney intercepted a Brodie pass on the first series of plays. The Lions drove to the 24 and MANN kicked a 31-yard field goal for a quick lead. But Brodie came back on the next series with WITCHER grabbing a 13-yard TD pass.

Then it was Detroit's turn to drive. Two passes from Landry put the ball at the 49er five. Landry ran in for a TD that was nullified by a holding penalty before MANN kicked another three-pointer (39 yds.) to make the score 7-6.

San Francisco came right back after the kickoff to go ahead 10-6 with GOSSETT kicking a 39-yarder. The Lions had to punt on the next series and the 49ers drove 80 yards to score again when Brodie pitched a 10-yard strike to WILLARD.

But Detroit drove back before intermission to go 80 yards with TAYLOR breaking loose to score to make it 17-13 at halftime. The Lions surged ahead at the start of the third period with OWENS bumping in from the one. But Brodie put the 49ers ahead again in a hurry as he threw a 30-yard scoring pass to WASHINGTON.

Then it was the Lions' turn to take the kickoff and strike back for the lead. Landry looped a 6-yard pass to SANDERS for a 27-24 edge. On the last play of the period, the Lions had the ball at their own 40 with less than six inches to go. They decided to go for the first down. Landry was stopped on a disputed decision and the 49ers took over. The 49ers moved to the Lion 17. A third-down play was stopped but a Lion offsides gave the 49ers new life. On third down at the 10, BRODIE couldn't find a receiver. He broke out of a trap and ran 10 yards up the middle for the winning points.

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Professional football . . . NFL brand . . . first came to Detroit in 1925 when Jimmy Conzelman was granted the franchise in exchange for the startling payment of $50.

But not even the colorful Conzelman, one of the game's most-popular and talented figures, could entice enough fans through his ticket gates. The local franchise was dropped from the league in 1927, re-instated a year later and then declared inactive in 1930. It looked like the end.

Then, in 1934, a very successful radio station owner named George Richards decided that Detroit needed a good pro team. He went out, bought one, then moved it here.

The team was the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans and it was a strong one. Coached by George (Potsy) Clark, the newly-named Lions won 10 straight games to open the 1934 season, the first seven by shutouts.

After outscoring the opposition, 215 to 27, in winning those 10 in a row, the Lions then lost their last three games by a total of only nine points and the Chicago Bears were the title winners.

In 1935, it was a different story as they grabbed their first divisional championship with a 7-3-2 record and then went on to win their first NFL crown by crunching the New York Giants at University of Detroit Stadium.

Although the Lions enjoyed winning seasons over the next four years, Richards sold out in 1940 to Fred Mandel, a Chicago department store tycoon. Mandel tried vainly to bring the city a winner during an eight-year regime but finally tossed in the towel.

In 1948, he accepted a check for $165,000 from a group of local businessmen who promptly named Alvin (Bo) McMillin, head coach at Indiana University, as the Lions' new coach and general manager. A re-building program was begun.

Bo's best mark was a break-even 6-6 mark in 1950 but he did a great job in "selling" pro football to the city and state. He was replaced as head coach after the '50 season by Raymond (Buddy) Parker, one of his assistants.

The building program finally paid its first big dividend in 1952 when the Lions tied the Los Angeles Rams in their conference and then defeated them for the divisional title in a playoff. It was on to Cleveland and a 17-7 victory for the NFL championship.

A year later it was a virtual repeat as Detroit, led by Bobby Layne and Doak Walker, won a second straight conference title and then edged the Browns again, this time in Detroit, by a 17-16 score on a late pass from Layne to Jim Doran.

The 1954 season again saw the Detroiters knock off the best in the west for a third consecutive conference crown. But their bid for a third straight NFL title was trumped in abrupt fashion at Cleveland as the Browns drubbed them 56-10.

Parker departed in 1957 when he suddenly resigned just two days before the team's first pre-season game. George Wilson was moved up from an assistant's job to succeed him and promptly steered the team to another championship.

(Con'd)

To do it, the Lions had to knock off San Francisco in a divisional playoff game and then once more take on the Cleveland Browns . . . the team that had defeated them by 46 points for the title just three years earlier.

The championship was played at Detroit. The score was 59-14 for the Lions.

Since 1957, the championship door has been closed to the Detroiters. They finished second three straight years in 1960-61-62 and each year were winners in the Playoff Bowl at Miami.

Early in 1964, ownership was acquired by William Clay Ford who paid former stockholders $6,000,000 for the franchise. Harry Gilmer was named coach to replace Wilson who resigned after the '64 season.

On Jan. 11, 1967, Joe Schmidt was appointed to succeed Gilmer after a brilliant 13-year playing career for the Lions, plus one season as an assistant coach.

After two losing seasons under Schmidt, the Lions returned to their winning ways in 1969. Detroit's 9-4-1 record was second in its division and fifth-best in the 16-team league.

The Lions posted a 10-4-0 mark in 1970, and it earned them a spot in the post-season playoffs. It was the fourth-best record in 37 years of Lion history.

Detroit lost to Dallas, 5-0, in the playoff game, but with many fast-rising stars and young, talented veterans, the future is bright for pro football in Detroit.
